

DODGED LAW 35 YEARS.

Accused Patriote Found in Soldiers' Home in Ohio.
ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., June 2.—After thirty-five years a mystery has been cleared by the efforts of a Federal pension examiner, who brought out the fact that James Weir, who fled when his father died after he struck him during a quarrel, is living under the name of John Anderson in the Dayton Soldiers' Home.

At the outbreak of the Civil War James Weir, a boy, enlisted. After the war he got a Federal pension. On July 4, 1881, Weir and his father quarreled and the young man was alleged to have struck the latter. The son was indicted for murder, but escaped. He says that he was never out of Ohio in all these years.

CARRANZA GATHERS 20,000 TROOPS FOR WATCH AT BORDER

Mexicans Ready for Patrol Duty, Gen. Funston Tells State Department.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM.

Five Months' Food for Pershing Shows U. S. Troops Will Remain Below Line.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Spread out on a 500-mile line 20,000 Carranzista troops have been mustered for border patrol work, according to Gen. Funston's report to the War Department today, following careful investigation of the Mexican troop movements. This number is double that which Gen. Obregon promised to dispose in Northern Mexico.

The bulk of the 20,000 troops, mostly infantrymen, is massed at Chihuahua City and vicinity. Four thousand are in Chihuahua City, 2,000 just south of there, and 5,000 have moved toward Madero, just northwest of Chihuahua City. Two thousand have moved toward Ojinaga, 300 miles east of Chihuahua City at the tip of the Big Bend. Others are scattered at various points on the 500-mile line between Madero and Ojinaga.

Gen. Funston said that while the newspapers report entrenchments of the Mexicans, his investigators found no evidence of such a move. In announcing this disposition, Secretary Baker declared Gen. Funston manifested no apprehension. The nearest Mexican forces are at Madero, fifty miles northwest of Pershing's line.

The Funston report was ordered in view of recent rumors that as many as 30,000 Carranzistas were being shifted to Northern Mexico. Whether the information will be taken as indicative of Carranza's ability to patrol the border is not yet known. The War Department is keeping the closest watch, however, on the movements.

In contradiction of recent reports of threats against the American forces, Gen. Funston's message declared Gen. Trevino recently issued strict orders that Mexicans insulting Americans would be summarily shot.

That U. S. troops will not be withdrawn from Mexico but are preparing for an indefinite stay there, if conditions make it necessary, is proved by the receipt of messages today from El Paso that the Quartermaster's Department there has forwarded 2,000,000 rations to Columbus, N. M., for motor transportation to Gen. Pershing's detachments. It is estimated these rations will last the troops five months, so that even should his lines of communication be cut by an attack of Carranzistas, his entrenched troops, backed by artillery, would not suffer.

The tone of the Carranza note is resented in official circles. While officials declined to discuss the communication, it is known that parts of it are regarded as insulting. It is realized that these passages undoubtedly were intended chiefly for home consumption. Some of them will not even be mentioned in the reply which will be sent to Mexico City, but it is believed that the thinly veiled accusation that President Wilson is playing domestic politics in retaining the troops in Mexico may draw a sharp rebuke.

POLITICIAN'S SLAYER SENTENCED TO DIE

Rombollo, Who Killed Frank L. Kenny in Jersey City, Must Go to Chair.

Michael Rombollo, convicted of slaying Frank L. Kenny, an active Democratic politician and municipal official at Jersey City on April 22 last, was sentenced today by Judge Sullivan in the Court of Common Pleas to be electrocuted during the week beginning July 21.

Kenny was shot near his home at 240 Union Street, on the night of April 23 while on the way home with his wife. Rombollo, who was drunk, insulted Mrs. Kenny and when Kenny demanded an apology the Italian fired on him.

REMOVAL OF MRS. DUNPHY SUSTAINED BY COURT

Appellate Division Approves Action of Mr. Kingsbury in Dismissing Her as Superintendent.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court today unanimously approved the dismissal of Mrs. Mary C. Dunphy from the position as superintendent of the New York City Children's Hospital and Schools on Randall's Island. The order dismissing her was made by John A. Kingsbury as Commissioner of Charities and was one of the causes of the recent charities investigation. After her dismissal, Mrs. Dunphy applied for a writ of mandamus and was granted one in the lower court. She had held the position from which she was dismissed on May 24, 1915, for more than four years. The Commissioner contended that he had the power to remove Mrs. Dunphy. Charges of mismanagement were made against her and she offered no answer.

- They announced their retirement from business and the closing out of their entire stock of Sporting Goods, Auto Supplies, Bicycles and Cutlery, to begin the next day.
- From thousands of items they quoted only 50, for the space was limited. Prices ranged from 4c to $56.35.
- Their confidence in THE WORLD was such that they provided 50 extra salesmen to take care of the rush—and they needed them all!
- The photograph reproduced herewith, taken at about 10.30 A. M. the next day, Saturday, (the doors were not opened until 10 A. M.) shows conclusively what THE WORLD will do for an advertiser who has a real proposition to place before the public.

- In May, 1916, THE WORLD gained 540 1/2 columns of Advertising, being 327 1/2 columns greater gain than any other New York morning newspaper. As a matter of fact—other morning newspapers published several hundred columns LESS advertising in May, 1916, than in May, 1915.
- The quality, quantity and buying capacity of THE WORLD'S Circulation leave nothing open to guess-work. Its gains in advertising space are based upon results such as the one here cited

The belt that is arranged at the low line is apt to be a becoming one to the growing girl and this frock shows it most attractively. The plain front and plain back give long and slender lines to the figure while at the same time the belted effect is retained. The buttons that hold, or appear to hold the belt in place make a pretty feature, too. Plain gingham is the material shown here with trimming of plain color, but this is a frock that can be made of pique or of linen to be dressy, or of gingham or of madras to be a simply useful dress. Rose colored pique with trimming of white scalloped with rose color would be charming; or the entire rose colored frock would be pretty scalloped with white and the scalloped outlined with just a line of black. Touches of black are executed in small smart and they are beautiful on colored material, and when they are well handled they give very good results. Taffeta could be used for the frock, too, plain taffeta or plaid taffeta. Dark blue would be very pretty with trimming of plaid or plaid with trimming of plain color. Pongee is being extensively worn this season. The pongee frock would be pretty with trimming either of a contrasting color or of a striped pongee.
For the knee size will be needed 3 1/2 yards of material 27 inches wide; 2 1/2 yards 26 or 2 1/2 yards 44, with 4 1/2 of a yard 56 inches wide for the trimming. The pattern No. 2092 is cut in sizes for girls from 8 to 12 years of age.
